Ann "And does going to school make me a school teacher?"

Mum "Annie.....that's Absurd!"

Ann "Is that why I can write better now?Am I becoming the Teacher Mummy?"

Mum "No!you aren't."

Ann " But I go to school more then I go to church?"

Mum "NO!"

Ann (Giggling) "Does going to the beach make me a seagull?" (laughing)

Mum "Annie this isn't funny?"

Ann "And does going to the Park make me a see-saw?"

Mum "Annie I'm getting cross!"

(Silence)

Ann "Does going to Mario's make me a Pizza?" (laughing)

Mum " That's ridiculous."

Ann “And does going to Church make me a Christian?”

Mum (Angrily) “No!”

Ann “But?.....You said it does?”

Mum “What.....um..... I mean yes.”

Ann “So.....Why doesn’t going to Mario’s make me a pizza?”

Mum “Annie.....That’s enough!”

Ann “ Will going to the zoo make me a monkey?” (giggling)

Mum “Annie.....Go to your room!”

Ann “But.....I.....”

Mum “Go to your room!”

Ann “But”.

Mum “Go to your room Now!”

Ann “If I go to my room will that make me a pillow?”

Mum (shouting) “GO TO YOUR ROOM!”

(Annie walks away quietly)

Narrator “Does going to church make you a Christian? No.....After the Fall of mankind in the Garden of Eden....We were all separated from God....Having our sins forgiven by the Grace of God....and being reconciled to him is what makes us a Christian....we can give everything we own to the poor, memorise the bible from cover to cover, and never miss a day of Church in our lives, and still be just as far away from God as someone who’s never done any of these things....We want to go to Church after we become Christians to learn more about the One who loved us so much He was willing to die for us, and to mix with the others who have had the same experience. Churches aren’t “Christian Factories” turning out new Christians, they’re houses of Worship.”
